EIGHT WEEKS AFTER THE DEATH OF HER SEVENTY-FOUR YEARS OLD MOTHER, LADY CHARLOTTE DARCONDE, AGED FORTY-FOUR, HAS GIVEN BIRTH TO A DAUGHTER IN A MOTHER'S HOME.

Under the terms of her 1878 marriage settlement with the Duke of Marlborough, Lady Charlotte was entitled to one-fourth of the proceeds from the sale of any property he might later acquire. This would include his London residence, which was valued at £50,000. The couple had no children prior to the birth of the baby girl, which brought much joy to the family.

NEW ARCADE OF SHOPS

The most spectacular stretch of windows in the country!

BARKERS

4th Floor Display Hall

MANNEQUIN PARADES

TOURS PIONEER DIES

Within a few hours of being buried in London churchyard, after a well-fought battle with cancer, the pioneer of the tourist industry, Sir Henry M. Barker, died peacefully in his sleep.

BE WISE!

Be more learned from regular news, by asking for the latest issue of The Daily Mirror.